Father, Hallowed Be Your Name

“Teach us to pray,” asks one of Jesus’ followers,
“as John taught his disciples.”
And so Jesus does, starting at the beginning.
As children of God,
we are free to address our creator as a loving parent.

Gathering & Praising God

To God be the Glory

Call to Worship & Prayer

Karina Morales

Leader: Our God loves us, and wants to draw us close.

All: We come in trust, as children to their guardian, safe in the protection of our creator.

Leader: God of love, you open your arms to your children and love to hear us call your name. Give us words that honor and build up, to your glory and that of your Son Jesus, who taught us how to pray. Amen.

Praise the Lord, Sing Hallelujah

During the summer of 1944, 13-year-old John must work alongside German POWs on a Mennonite neighbor's farm in Lancaster, while his father is fighting in Europe. John loves to draw and always has a sketchbook handy. Unexpectedly, his drawings force him to make difficult decisions involving POWs, his father and his dreams.
